Profile

I am a versatile programmer who excels in solving puzzles with code. Proficient in crafting algorithms using C++ and Python, I extend my expertise to building visually appealing and functional websites. My skill set encompasses HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React, Bootstrap, and Node.js. Alongside my programming prowess, I am also well-versed in the art of copywriting. I thrive on challenges and enjoy collaborating with others to create not only technically sound solutions but also compelling and engaging content
